THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.Y.SOMAYAJULU

W.P.No.22574 of 2005

ORDER:

Though several prayers are made in the petition, the learned counsel for the petitioner in confining the prayer in relation to the inaction of the third respondent-Election Officer in not furnishing the reasons for rejection of the nomination of the petitioner. In the Hand Book of Guidelines and Executive Instructions on Elections to Cooperative Societies Clause 3(d) and (e) read:

> d) The Election Officer shall endorse on each nomination paper, his decision accepting or rejecting as the case may be and if the nomination paper is rejected he shall record in writing his reasons in brief for such rejection.
> e) On request in writing the reasons of rejection of nomination may be communicated to the candidate.

So third respondent not communicating the reasons for rejection of the nomination of the petitioner, though his name is found in the list of nominations filed, and the list of persons who did not default any amount to the society concerned is improper.

In the circumstances stated, the third respondent is directed to immediately furnish the reasons for rejection of the nomination of the petitioner, on or before 21.10.2005.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs.
